

BVA ANNOUNCES 28TH ANNUAL GENERAL MEETING AND RECEPTION

28th October 2008

The BVA announces that its 28th Annual General Meeting and Reception will take place next week on Tuesday 4th November at the Movieum in County Hall with the kind support of Macrovision.

The evening will start with the annual statement from the newly elected BVA Chairman, Anthony Peet, General Manager for Walt Disney Studios Home Entertainment. The BVA's 2008 news review will follow and the Rt Hon Andy Burnham, Secretary of State, Department for Culture Media and Sport will be this year's keynote speaker. Guests will have the opportunity to put questions to him.

BVA Marketing Manager, Hannah Conduct says "We look forward to hearing Mr Burnham's views on the creative industries at this critical time. Following the period of consultation about ISP's we are interested in learning more about the impact on digital copyright theft.

"The Movieum is an exciting and unusual venue and we are pleased to have Macrovision sponsoring what has become an important industry fixture.

"In these challenging economic times, the BVA now more than ever aims to give value for money to its members and so we look forward to hosting a useful and informative evening."
